GIRL'S SECRET.

"Aunt Cassie came to visit us and she saw I was nervous, had the fidgets all the time, and she asked me many questions, and finally said, 'Why, you dear, sweet girl, it's not your temper that's bad, it's your constitution that's out of kilter. You sit right down now and write a letter to Dr. Pierce, at Buffalo, N. Y., tell him all your symptoms—and so I did. It wasn't long before I had a long reply, carefully going over my case and telling me just what to do. I date my present happiness and little Cupid's return to the very day I sat down to write that letter to Dr. Pierce, for his advice was so good and his 'Favorite Prescription' worked such a complete change in me that now my former cheerfulness and good health—not to say anything of good looks—are restored to me. I have summoned Tom back to my side and we are to be married in June."

The proprietors and makers of Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription now feel fully warranted in offering to pay $500 for any case of Leucorrhea, Female Weakness, Protrusion, or Falling of the Womb, which they cannot cure. All they ask is a fair and reasonable trial of their means of cure. It is natural that a woman who has been cured of womanly disease by 'Favorite Prescription' should believe that it will cure others. It is natural too that she should recommend to other women the medicine which has cured her. It is such commendation which has made the name of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription a household word for the past thirty-eight years.

PORT ARTHUR DOOMED.

The official reports of the Port Ar-thur operations since August 1 form a recital of almost continuous fighting of a desperate nature. The Russians first struggled desperately to block every Jap-aneese advance and then met the concen-trated artillery fire of the Japanese with its kind. Later, since the Japanese began running parallels and traverses and extending mines, the Russians have been constantly making sorties. They rushed into the Japanese trenches and engaged in ferocious struggles with the engineers and pioneers. With desperate courage the Japanese continued to close in upon the fortress, progressing stage by stage. The Japanese infantry never failed to respond when asked to make an assault on almost impossible positions, and when the troops gained a foothold they generally held it with unflinching determination.

The official reports from Tokio de-scribing the desperate assaults upon Port Arthur, beginning October 26, have created visible depression at the War Office in St. Petersburg. The sustained character of the bombardment with siege guns and the breaching of the walls by underground mines, but, above all, the fact that the Japanese govern-ment, after weeks of silence regarding the operations of the besiegers has given out these reports before actual success has crowned their efforts, con-vinces the military authorities that after long preparation General Nogi is not only making a supreme effort to carry the fortress, but feels so confident of suc-cess that the result of the preliminary operations has been made public. They believe the assault was timed for the announcement of the fall of the fortress to be made upon the birthday of the Mikado (today), which, by a strange coincidence, is the tenth anniversary of the accession of Emperor Nicholas and is a great Rus-sian holiday.

Today, therefore, is expected to be marked by fate for a day of immense re-joicing either for Japan or Russia, ac-cording as the present assault succeeds or fails. The War Office is trying to buoy up the Russian hopes with refer-ences to the long and successful de-fense Lieutenant General Stoessel has thus far conducted, but things have now reached such a pass with the garrison and the character of the present attempt upon the fortress is evidently so deter-mined that the authorities frankly admit they would not be surprised if the end was at hand.

VERDICT IN THE NORTH SEA TRAGEDY.

"That George Henry Smith and Wil-liam Leggett were at about 12:30 a. m. on October 22, while out fishing with trawls aboard the British steamer trawler Crane, with Board of Trade marks ex-hibited and regulation lights burning, killed by shot fired without warning or provocation from certain Russian war vessels at a distance about a quarter of a mile."

This is the text of the jury's verdict at the coroner's inquest on the fisher-men victims of the North Sea tragedy in Hull, England, yesterday. At the request of the British government rep-resented by the Earl of Dysart, solicitor of the treasury, this conservative award was rendered by the first court of inquiry preceding the sessions of the interna-tional tribunal. The government asked the jury not to find a verdict of wilful murder or manslaughter, because "delicate negotiations are going on which should not be made more diffi-cult, and they ought not to let anyone think they had prejudged the case be-fore having heard both sides." In con-sequence the jury simply sets forth the facts proved by the evidence of phys-i-cians, experts on explosives and the trawlers themselves.

To the verdict the jury added the fol-lowing rider:
"On this occasion, probably the most momentous in the annals of the British Empire, the jury would record their ap-preciation of the efforts made by the gov-ernments interested to arrive at a satis-factory conclusion of the matter, which, we feel, has no parallel in the history of the world."

St. George's Hall, a large auditorium which had been specially fitted up for the occasion, was quite inadequate to accommodate the crowds that wished to listen to the evidence. The interest was intense, and there was some excite-ment, but no demonstration occurred. A great number of people gathered in the vicinity of the building to await the verdict, and the space inside the hall was filled. The British government, the Board of Trade, the owners of the Gamecock fleet and the relatives of the deceased and wounded fishermen were represented by counsel, but the Russian government did not partici-pate.

The proceedings occupied only about three hours.

FROM SOUTH AFRICA.

New Way of Using Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

Mr. Arthur Chapman writing from Durban, Natal, South Africa, says: "As a proof that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is a cure suitable for old and young, I pen you the following: A neighbor of mine had a child just over two months old. It had a very bad cough and the parents did not know what to give it. I suggested that if they would get a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and put some upon the dummy test the baby was sucking it would no doubt cure the child. This they did and brought about a quick relief and cured the baby." This remedy is for sale by Gibson & Tim-berman and W. F. Creighton & Co., druggists.
